The Peninsula London

Superbly situated alongside Hyde Park Corner and Wellington Arch, The Peninsula London occupies one of the city's most prestigious addresses. Newly built and impeccably designed to harmonize with the surrounding heritage buildings, the hotel is just steps away from Kensington Gardens, and other iconic attractions.

- Rooftop restaurant with stunning views of the London skyline and Hyde Park
- Located opposite Buckingham Palace in Belgravia
- Home to the two Michelin Star Brooklands restaurant by Claude Bosi

Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park

Sitting between glorious Royal Parkland and the buzz of central Knightsbridge, Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London is re-imagined and re-invented, offering the essence of timeless heritage coupled with contemporary flair and impeccable service. Each room has its own unique layout with a bespoke furniture and custom-made Onyx chandeliers. Volakas marble bathrooms have either a walk-in shower or bath with an in-built shower.

- Three Michelin Key Hotel
- TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence
- Convenient to Harrods and Harvey Nichols, London's premier shopping destinations

Raffles London at the OWO

Raffles London is located in what was the Old War Office building, known today as The OWO. It was once home to legends such as Sir Winston Churchill and Lord Haldane. This building's history is associated with spies and espionage as MI5 and MI6 had operations here during the 20th century. Located in the heart of Whitehall, it has been meticulously restored and is now home to Raffles London at The OWO - an Epic Stage for Modern Tastemakers.

- Walking distance to Buckingham Palace
- Celebrated three Michelin-starred Argentine-Italian chef Mauro Colagreco signature restaurant

The Clermont, Charing Cross

More than a hotel with a rich history, The Clermont, Charing Cross is a return to what hotels should truly be: distinctly human, with you – our guest – at the heart of everything.

Situated on the Strand, just steps from Charing Cross Station, we offer unbeatable convenience in the very center of London. Whether you're here for business or leisure, iconic landmarks like Trafalgar Square, the London Eye, and the West End are all within easy reach.

Explore the city by day, then return to the comfort and thoughtful luxury you deserve.

- TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice Award
- Steps to Trafalgar Square, minutes from London's West End and the National Gallery.

Holmes Hotel

Holmes Hotel London is a boutique hotel, steps away from Baker Street station and conveniently located on London's iconic Chiltern Street. Discover Marylebone, our vibrant neighborhood known for its Georgian architecture, boutique shopping, cozy cafés, and green spaces like The Regent's Park.

- TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice Award

Additional Experiences

Iconic Landmark Tour

Be awed by Westminster Abbey, bounce around Buckingham Palace, wander through Windsor Castle, and climb to the top of the Tower Bridge. London is filled with iconic and majestic attractions of historical and cultural importance. A private day-tour offers you the ability to experience the city at your own pace. Sightsee, then stop for a unique afternoon tea experience at Sketch in Mayfair.

Mingle Through the Food Markets

London is filled with local food markets. The oldest and most famous of London's food markets, dating back to the 13th century, is the Borough Market. London's top chefs shop for fresh ingredients at Borough Market's specialty food shops and stalls, while crowds of visitors are drawn to the diverse street food. You can find almost anything here – from fresh seafood and rare French cheeses to Croatian sausage, freshly baked cakes, ostrich burgers, and every spice imaginable.

Additional Experiences

National Gallery Tour

Visit London's classical art gallery and one of the top art galleries in the world. When the National Gallery was founded in 1824, it displayed just 38 paintings. Today, it is home to over 2300 works of art, from medieval paintings to world-famous Impressionist works. You will see the likes of Leonardo, Michelangelo, Correggio, and standout works from Rembrandt, Van Gogh, and Monet.

Nightlife Experience in Soho

Soho is considered the heart of London nightlife. This colorful, bohemian center of London has many things to offer; the legendary jazz club that has hosted stars like Miles Davis, the famous speakeasy where Charles de Gaulle drank during WWII, and underground experimental cocktail clubs. If you are into dancing, check out the legendary Marquee Club where artists such as David Bowie, the Rolling Stones, and U2 have performed.

Additional Experiences

Champagne and Canapes on the London Eye

Relax and enjoy an extra special look at London's skyline in your very own private capsule. Sip chilled champagne and nibble on canapes in your cozy cabin as you experience unforgettable views from Europe's tallest observation wheel. Built in 2000 in honor of the coming millennium, the London Eye has quickly become one of London's best-loved attractions.

Tour the Tate Modern Museum

This powerhouse of contemporary art is Britain's most visited and spectacular gallery. Once a power station on the Thames, this magnificent venue showcases minimalism, surrealism, and post-war abstraction artwork by Picasso, Anthony Gormley, Salvador Dalí, and Andy Warhol.
