Additional Experiences

Private Thoroughbred Farm Tour

Few breeds of horses evoke the degree of superlatives used to define the thoroughbred. From the majesty of the stallion standing alone in his paddock, to the glory of the athlete thrusting a nose ahead at the finish line, and with the preciousness of the foal peering out from behind the curtain of her dam's tail, there are no words to describe this amazement. It must be experienced.

See the farm from the eyes of the owners: their favorite paddock walks and feeding carrots to the broodmare band & babies. This added allure of "insider" knowledge and access offers an intimate and truly immersive experience

Bourbon Distillery Tours

Over 200 years ago, as pioneers began settling the wild lands of Kentucky, they found that this was the promised land for distilling bourbon. From the ideal climate for aging barrels, to the fertile earth for growing corn, to the immense amount of limestone that makes for the purest of water, it was the perfect storm. From there, the rest is history. Famous brands and craft makers of bourbon call Kentucky home. Sip, stroll, and savor your way across the various bourbon distilleries. Experience a single batch straight from the barrel and the beauty of a blend.

Additional Experiences

Get a close look at how this five-generation family crafts the finest spirits from grain to bottle all under one roof. This urban distillery's state-of-the-art facility, the vast family history and the creative process of bourbon making will make this experience one you won't forget.
