Old Ground Hotel

The 4-Star Old Ground Hotel is one of County Clare's premier luxury hotels, offering Ryder Cup spectators an exceptional stay in the heart of Ennis Town. Renowned for award-winning hospitality — including Best Hospitality Provider in County Clare (2019) — the Old Ground combines historic charm with contemporary comfort for a truly memorable Irish hotel experience.

Perfectly positioned for visitors exploring the west of Ireland, the Old Ground Hotel is located on the doorstep of iconic attractions including The Burren Geopark, Bunratty Castle, the Cliffs of Moher, and many of the most celebrated highlights along the Wild Atlantic Way. Guests can experience the very best of County Clare while enjoying the convenience of a central town location.

The hotel is just a 20-minute drive from Shannon International Airport, ensuring a smooth and stress-free arrival — ideal for international Ryder Cup guests flying directly into the west of Ireland.

Upon arrival, guests step into a beautifully restored 18th-century manor house, where a warm Irish welcome awaits. Each stay includes accommodation in a luxurious, spacious bedroom or suite, providing a stylish and comfortable home away from home during your time in Ireland.

Additional Experiences

Blarney Castle and Cork Tour

While in the Cork region, take the time to visit the colorful village of Cobh - final departure point of many emigrant ships, including the ill-fated RMS Titanic. Progress towards Cork city, where you can enjoy highlights including the English Market and St. Finbarre's Cathedral. Your visit to Blarney Castle and Cork with 'Elegant Irish' promises you a level of exclusivity and luxury, which you will not find elsewhere in Ireland. Sit, back, relax and enjoy a fantastic day out with us!

Cliffs of Moher Tour

Enjoy a private, chauffeured tour of Ireland's west, traveling from the Irish midlands to the coast with stops in Kinvara for views of Dunguaire Castle and the remote Corcomroe Abbey. Continue along the Wild Atlantic Way through the Burren, with lunch in the coastal village of Doolin, before visiting the iconic Cliffs of Moher to take in sweeping Atlantic views and the Atlantic Edge visitor experience. The day concludes with a final stop at Bunratty Castle, with time for photos, shopping at the Woollen Mills, or a quick drink in a traditional pub.

Additional Experiences

Connemara and Galway City Tour

Set off in a private luxury vehicle with a knowledgeable local guide and journey west to Ireland's most captivating landscapes. Discover the storybook village of Cong, where medieval ruins, lakeside views and the ancient Cong Abbey set the scene for a relaxed traditional lunch. Continue to the shores of Lough Corrib, Ireland's second-largest lake, before driving through the wild beauty of Connemara, the Maam Valley and along Galway Bay to the Atlantic village of Spiddal. Finish the day in vibrant Galway City, exploring its colorful streets, historic landmarks and lively music scene.

Glendalough and Wicklow Mountains Tour

Travel through the Wicklow Mountains—known as the “Garden of Ireland”—before exploring the breathtaking glacial valley of Glendalough, home to a 6th-century monastic settlement. Continue along the scenic Wicklow Gap with sweeping mountain views and waterfalls, then journey to medieval Kilkenny, once Ireland's capital, where you'll enjoy free time to explore Kilkenny Castle, cobbled streets, local craft shops and renowned food spots.

Additional Experiences

Jameson Whiskey Tour

Enjoy a fully guided distillery tour, premium whiskey tasting, cask opening experience, cocktail making class or extended duration tour, going behind-the-scenes across our historic 15-acre site. Come face-to-face with the largest pot still in the world, visit our micro-distillery, stroll through a live maturation warehouse, and sample some of the world's most awarded Irish whiskeys.

Golf

Golfing in Ireland offers a world-class experience with over 400 courses, including a third of the world's true links courses. The landscape offers breathtaking views, from dramatic coastlines to lush, rolling fairways and countryside scenery.
